

Ecological Management of Native Riparian Restoration Plantings & Beaver

Local youth spraying (Beaver) pruning deterrent on largest trees of a city parkway riparian restoration site. This lower cost ecological approach is supported by the Sacramento Area Flood Control Agency (SAFCA), and local community and environmental organizations.

Youth spray (Beaver) pruning attractant (diluted almond extract) on alternative natural riparian (Beaver) forage across the American River from a large riparian restoration planting

